ENOUGH FOR ONE BED.

Emigration to the State of Michigan was so great during the years of 1835-6, that every house was filled every night with travelers wanting lodging. Every traveler there at that time will remember the difficulty of obtaining a bed in the hotels, even if he had two or three "strange bed-fellows."

The Rev. Hosea Brown, an eccentric Methodist minister, stopped one right at one of the hotels in Ann Arbor, and inquired if he could have a room and bed could, unless they should be so full as to render it necessary to put another with into a comfortable sleep. Along towards midnight he was aroused from his slumber by a loud knocking at his door.

'Hallo! you there,' he exclaimed, "what do you want now !"-particular stress on the last word. 'You must take another lodger, sir, with you,' said the voice of the landlord. What! another yet? 'Why, yes-there is only one in here

'One ! why here is Mr. Brown, a methodist preacher, and myself, already, and

I should think that enough for one bed, even in Michigan.' The landlord seemed to think so too,

A GHOST IN LOVE.

A farmer who had lately become a widower, was aroused at midnight by the barking of his dog. On going to it the animal displayed extreme terror, whereupon the farmer took his gun and p oceeded to an inspection. All at once he saw a phantom clothed in a white sheet, rise behind the hedge. The farmer turn ed deadly pale, and his limbs shook with dismay. He however, contrived to ejaculate, 'If you come from God, speak; if from the devil, vanish! 'Wretch!' exclaimed the phantom, 'I am your deceased wife, come from the grave to warn you not to marry Maria A-, to whom you are making love. The only woman to succeed me, is Henrietta

"And how do you manage when the happy pair are negroes?" was the deacons' next question. "In all such cases," replied Mr. Dey, "the duty of kissing is appointed to the deacons."

We would earnessly invite all persons who are suffering with any of the ills that flesh is beit to, to call on Dr. John Ball's agent, and set a cupy of Ball's Family Journal gratis; and for the saxe of humanity we hope that a single individual will not be found unwilling to give Ball's Sarsaparilla a trial after-modifica, and recollecting, at the same time, that it is impossible for the Doctor to publish the irinth part of the number of certificates of astonailing curves performed by his Sarsaparilla. The amount of bestimony voluntarily showered on Br. Ball's Sarsaparilla, from well known and distinguished individuals, both in public and private life, has been perfectly overwhelming.

Syrphien A. Meale, Canton, Ohio, May 11, 1853, says: "Having heard your German Bitters highly recommended from sources in which I placed much confidence, I ordered four bottles from Cleveland. One of them I gave to my daughter who has derived great benefit from it; two of the others I sold immediately, and I would like you to send me a supply of it to sell."

Joan Cleark, Eunswick, Ohio, May 25, 1854, any: "Your German Bitters have proved successful in every case that has come to my knowledge, and hus opened for itself a great demand."

Thomas Levenroan, Covington, Ohio, Dec. 27th, 1833, says: "My wife has been affected with the Liver complaint and Dyspepsia for a number of years, during which time I have spent a great deal for doctoring, but she received very little benefit therefrom, and finally the doctors said she could not be cured. Last spring she conclinied to try your litters; the took two hottles and ever since taking them she has been able to attend to her business, until very lately she had a new attack but has again commenced the Bitters. I have sold quite a number of bottles through her recommendation, and as far as I can be learn, it has given satisfaction to all."
